In the notice the particular conduct, which constitutes a nuisance, must be adequately described or the Rule that has allegedly been contravened must be clearly indicated, and the offender must be warned that if he or she persists in such conduct or contravention, a fine will be imposed on the owner of the section.
- (2) If the owner or occupier nevertheless persists in that particular conduct or in the contravention of that particular Rule, the trustees may convene a meeting of trustees to discuss the matter and to impose a fine.
- (3) A written notice by which the alleged offender (whether owner or occupier), is informed of the purpose of the meeting and invited to attend, must be sent to the owner and occupier at least 14 (fourteen) days before the meeting is held. At the meeting the owner and/or occupier must be given the opportunity to:-
 - (a) present his or her own case;
 - (b) present any evidence, including calling of witnesses, to substantiate his or her case;
 - (c) cross-examine any witnesses called on behalf of the body corporate;

- (d) disclosure of any relevant documents.
- (4) After the owner or occupier has been given the opportunity to present his case, the trustees may by way of an ordinary majority vote determine whether the owner or occupier is guilty of the alleged offence and if so impose an initial penalty for the first offence and a subsequent penalty for every similar offence thereafter.
- (5) Should the owner or occupier not attend the meeting without providing a reasonable request for postponement, the trustees, in their sole discretion, may continue with the meeting and impose a fine in the owner and/or occupier's absence.
- (6) Any fine imposed in terms of sub-rule (4), may if it is not paid within 14 (fourteen) days after the offender and owner (if the offender is not an owner) has been notified of the imposition of the fine, be added to the contribution which an owner is obliged to pay in terms of s 37(1) of the Act and claimed by the trustees as part of the monthly instalments payable by the owner.
- (7) The body corporate may determine the amounts of the initial and subsequent penalties at the same meeting that this rule is adopted. Notwithstanding the aforementioned the body corporate may, at any general meeting, from time to time, determine the amount of the initial and subsequent penalties.
- (8) The imposition of a fine on any owner does not affect the right of the body corporate to obtain an appropriate court order or arbitration award and the trustees may elect, on behalf of the body corporate, to impose any one or more options.
- (9) Notwithstanding the provisions of this rule the trustees shall have the power and be entitled to appoint an attorney to act on their behalf.
- (10) An Owner shall be liable for and pay all legal costs, including costs as between attorney and own client, collection commission, expenses and charges incurred by the Body Corporate in obtaining the recovery of any damages, penalties, costs or other arrear amounts due and owing by such Owner to the Body Corporate in terms of These Rules, or in enforcing compliance with These Rules.
- (11) Any costs incurred by the Trustees in terms of These Rules, shall be regarded as a levy and may be added to the levy account of the specific Owner, who was/is liable for the costs in terms of the rules, and may be recovered from the Owner as a levy debt, with interest at the rate applicable to arrear levies.

- (3) The trustees may remove, or cause to be removed, any tree, plant or shrub that is considered to be a nuisance, aesthetically displeasing or that causes damage to any section, exclusive use area or any part of the common property or otherwise interferes in any way with the powers and functions performed by the trustees on behalf of the body corporate.
- (4) An owner or occupier of a section shall not cause garden tools or any other equipment to be kept in any place where they will be visible from any other section or any portion of the common property.
